Personal Biography:

I am currently Head of Sociology and I have taught the subject for 20 years in the post-16 sector. I lead a department with a strong track-record, where learners achieve outstanding results in terms of achievement, high grades and value-added. I have experience of sharing good practice in teaching and learning, both within New College and with other Sixth Form Colleges, performing the role of Sociology Subject Specialist for the Norvic region. I have also acted as mentor for PGCE placement students and new teachers. I am an experienced A Level examiner for AQA
