

Leading for Impact: Middle Leadership Course

Course Overview

As a middle leader you play a critical role in the success of your school. The Leading for Impact course, which has been designed for practising and aspirational middle leaders, will help you to develop in a range of areas, with a strong focus on ensuring that your plans and actions have a positive impact on your students.

The course consists of two elements. The first is a series of five twilight sessions led by experienced senior leaders from the New Collaborative Teaching Alliance. Secondly, a key part of the course will be your School-Based Project. Using a piece of work that you are currently engaged in, we will support you in applying some of the aspects you have learnt about to your current practice.
